Compensation for the Injured

Mark Parrish, Josh Sanders and Erica Mae Fumagalli won a verdict in a recent federal jury trial, recovering six-times more than what had been offered for settlement to a client who was injured by a commercially-owned truck.

Grateful Clients Who Become Friends Are a Treasure

Much more than a simple “Thank You,” Stephanie and Sarah were exceptional in their kindness. Ray Salva and Angel Romi are pictured receiving this beautiful expression both of gratitude and remembrance of the life senselessly lost.

John Boyd Named Workers' Compensation Panel Member of the Year by the Professional Hockey Players Association.

Remember to Vote November 6

Tuesday, November 6 is midterm Election Day! When you vote on November 6th, take your family and friends to the polls. Vote for those candidates who oppose right to work and who support working families' access to justice.

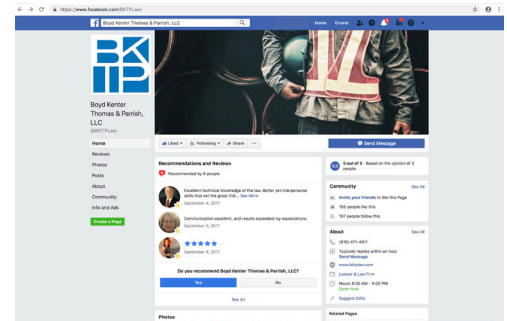

Fighting for the Injured at Work

Associate Attorney, Jason Iezzi recently received a permanent total disability award for a former Ford assembly line worker who was rendered unable to work because of the effects of her job injuries. As a result, our client was awarded weekly payments for life, plus 13 years of back wages.
