“There should be no intimidation, no coercion, no threats, no anti-union propaganda.”

— President Joe Biden

Union voters delivered this election for Biden and Harris. Their message and commitment to create “the most significant pro-labor, pro-worker administration” resonated with AFL-CIO’s 12.5 million members and 56 affiliated unions who are hungry for a bigger voice in our economy and our politics.

Workers in Alabama – and all across America – are voting on whether to organize a union in their workplace. It’s a vitally important choice – one that should be made without intimidation or threats by employers.

Every worker should have a free and fair choice to join a union.

Unions lift up workers, both union and non-union.

COVID-19 Immunity Bill Update

The Bill is currently in Missouri's House Special Committee on Litigation Reform. Movement on the COVID-19 Immunity Bill is expected this summer.

This Bill RAISES the standards by which a Plaintiff must prove misconduct that caused an injury. It protects companies from responsibility when they improperly expose people to COVID-19. It would also tie injuries NOT really related to COVID-19 under this liability shield due to its poor and broad wording.

Contact your State Representative and tell them to vote AGAINST this bill.

Women Claiming Power Through Unions and Leadership

Generation after generation, over centuries, women have organized, fought for better lives and freedom. In the U.S., we elected Vice President Kamala Harris – the first Black woman, the first Indian woman – to serve in the second highest office.

And guess, what? Having her in that position means that she is including women at the table: union women! Because she knows, when women join unions, lead unions, the labor movement expands, and the power of all workers grows. – Liz Shuler, Secretary – Treasurer, AFL-CIO

This law firm follows the AFL-CIO's lead by including women at the table – our managing partner is Brianne Thomas. During her tenure as managing partner, Brianne has consistently been recognized for her leadership, mentorship to young women lawyers and her winning work.
